

TAMMY CHETTY

Johannesburg, South Africa, SA

Tammy.chetty@adcock.com or tammy.chetty10@gmail.com

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Nationality South African

CORE COMPETENCIES

Experienced and credible pharmaceutical industry professional with 20 years in the various sectors of the pharmaceutical industry including proven skills in regulatory affairs, quality assurance, compliance, pharmacovigilance and management.

- Strategic Formulation and Oversight
- Compliance Metrics Identification and Execution
- Continuous Compliance Improvement
- Risk Management
- Stakeholder Management – national and international
- Executive and Board engagement
- Industry Trade and Professional Association and Regulatory Authority liaison
- Track record in registration of generic and biosimilar medicine; including successful launches of cosmetics and health supplements.
- Successful identification and implementation of electronic systems
- Management of direct reports with defined KPI's and operational efficiency
- Budgeting, Business Acumen
- Critical Thinking, Complex Problem Solver, Cross functional collaboration and networking
- Challenge the norm to disrupt conventional thinking for the benefit of patients and the business
- Strong governance, ethical output and courage complement my career and personality
- ECTD and Quality Management Systems exposure

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Currently hold a position as the Head of Compliance in Adcock Ingram, a South African leading pharmaceutical company July 2015 – current

- Key decision maker in critical product, quality, distribution, regulatory, marketing matters that may impact product quality, safety and efficacy.
- Initiate and lead regular review meetings with CEO on occurrences and trends in quality, regulatory, medical, operations and distribution.
- Participate in cross-functional discussions with Research and Development; Marketing; Business Development; Supply Chain; Regulatory; Quality Assurance and Production
- Personal interaction in all critical regulatory interactions with the South African Health Products Regulatory Authority (SAHPRA), Department of Health, South African Pharmacy Council and other regulatory agencies.

EDUCATION

1. Master of Science in Regulatory Affairs for Drugs, Biologics, and Medical Devices (cum laude)

(concentration in Strategic Regulatory Affairs)

Completed March 2020

Northeastern University, Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America

All Distinctions achieved

2. Post Graduate Diploma in Business Administration PDBA (cum laude) Jan 2014 – Dec 2014

Gordon Institute of Business Science (business school of University of Pretoria), Pretoria, South Africa

Distinctions obtained: Marketing, Management Accounting, Economics, Financial Accounting, Ethics and sustainability, Strategic Human Resources. Awarded the Top Student award for Management Accounting

3. Bachelor of Pharmacy (cum laude)

Jan 1995 - Dec 1998

University of Durban-Westville, Durban, Kwa-Zulu Natal, South Africa

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Nominated in 2019 as Vice-Chair of the South African Pharmaceutical Industry Task Group (ITG).
- Past President of SAAPI (South African Association of Pharmacists in Industry) from October 2013 – October 2015. Vice-President of the Pharmaceutical Society of South Africa (PSSA) for 2 years
- SAAPI Exco member from 2010 to current. Represented SAAPI at the FIP (International Federation of Pharmacists) Conferences: Amsterdam 2012, Dublin 2013, Germany 2015, Seoul 2017.
- Pharmaceutical Manufacturers in South Africa (PHARMISA): Current key contributor on Technical and Regulatory discussions and represent the interests of the association on the South African Industry Working Groups: Medical Device Working Group and Complementary Medicine Working Group.
- Member of International Pharmaceutical Federation (FIP) and appointed as the Associate Exco member of Industry Pharmacy Sector (IPS) in FIP from February 2016 to date.
- Current South African Marketing Code Authority (MCA) Panelist Member.
- Other past positions:

MCA alternate Board Member for period July-December 2018

Self-Medication Association of South Africa (SMASA, now Self-Care Association): Member of the Technical and Regulatory Committee from 2015 to July 2020