

Global Conference on Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences Education
7-8 November 2016

Final Remarks

Prof. Phil Schneider

Planning Committee Chair and Conference co-Chair

Moving forward to chapter 4...

FIP Vision 2020

Centennial Declaration

Global Conference

Nanjing China

Global Conference on Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences Education
7-8 November 2016

Engagement with Professional Associations

Moment => MomentUM

Call for Action

Key Figures

- 35 delegations, from 36 countries voted on the Nanjing Statements
- 45 countries represented at Global Conference
- Public Consultation:
- Vision
- FIP has received a total of 99 comments, suggestions and support from 31 countries and territories
- Workforce Development Goals
- FIP received a total of 689 comments, suggestions and support from 23 countries and territories.
- Nanjing Statements
- FIP has received a total of 3216 Comments, suggestions and support from 22 Countries and territories

Outcomes of Global Conference

A global and shared Vision

Workforce Development Goals to support the implementation of the Vision

Statements on Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences Education

Follow up of Global Conference

- PowerPoint Slides in 1 week – Share the key findings of Global Conference with your members
- Learn from and share the final report on Global Conference with relevant information on the lessons from sessions and workshops – February 2017

November 2016

February 2017

FIP Congress Seoul

PowerPoint slides, Approved Statements and Vision & Workforce Development Goals to support participants reporting back home

Detailed report with key findings and messages

Session 1 year after:
What has been the impact of Global Conference?

How to report back in your country? – Science & Practice Leaders and Policy Makers

- Become an ambassador for change by supporting and advocate for the implementation of the Global Vision and Workforce Development Goals
- Prioritize the Workforce Development Goals according to the national strategy on health and workforce development in your country
- Report back to FIP how have you implemented the conclusions of Global Conference and share it at the FIP Congress in Seoul – Contact FIPeD Staff (education@fip.org)

How to report back in your country? – Education Leaders

- Share the Nanjing Statements on Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences Education
- Get your School or Faculty involved at FIP Academic Institution Membership (AIM)
- Become inter-connected on a global platform of discussion and leadership
- Access to exclusive content on how Statements are being implemented in different countries
- Participate in the leadership event at FIP Congress in Seoul – AIM Deans Forum
- More information: <http://aim.fip.org>

Global Conference on
Pharmacy &
Pharmaceutical Sciences
Education
7-8 November 2016

Post Conference events – 9 November (optional)

- Networking event between Chinese education leaders and international deans at Purple Palace Hotel (Morning) - Purple Palace Room
- Visit of the campus of the Chinese Pharmaceutical University (CPU), the largest school of pharmacy in China (Afternoon) – 13h30

Global Conference on
Pharmacy &
Pharmaceutical Sciences
Education
7-8 November 2016

Key Messages

- Nanjing - A milestone in professional development and transformative education
- Building a sustainable pharmaceutical workforce – Shaping tomorrow's workforce
- Collaboration is key
- Evidence to support and guide change
- Maintaining and increase the relevance for the profession
- No pharmacy services and pharmaceutical sciences without workforce
- No workforce without education
- Window of opportunity...

- It's now or never -> Became an Ambassador of Change

Thank you! Keep on posting and engaging on social media... Share your enthusiasm!

#TransformPharmacy

