

BIOGRAPHY - Ema Paulino

Ema Paulino is a community pharmacist at her own pharmacy in Portugal. She is currently also accountable for the development and implementation of pharmaceutical services in a virtual chain of 380 pharmacies. She is President of the Lisbon and South Branch of the Portuguese Pharmaceutical Society, and represents this organisation at various international groups and organisations. Currently Professional Secretary of FIP, Ema has previously been a member of the FIP Programme Committee, Secretary of the Community Pharmacy Section, and Chairperson of the Young Pharmacists' Group.